2. ORGANIZATIONAL BACKGROUND

Safe India Orphanage was founded by Dr. Devadoss Pathra with a commitment to social welfare, humanitarian service and community development. The organisation works to support children, women, elderly persons, vulnerable families and disadvantaged communities through practical, community-oriented programmes.

The organisation seeks to promote dignity, opportunity, education, health, protection and empowerment among people who face social and economic challenges. Its activities are intended to respond to genuine community needs while encouraging participation, self-reliance and sustainable development.

Safe India Orphanage has developed experience in areas including child welfare, women's empowerment, health awareness, support for vulnerable people, community development, NGO capacity building, educational support and humanitarian assistance.

3. VISION

To build a caring and inclusive society in which vulnerable children, women, elderly persons and disadvantaged families can live with dignity, safety, equality and hope.

4. MISSION

The mission of Safe India Orphanage is to identify genuine community needs and provide responsible social support through welfare programmes, educational initiatives, health-related activities, women's empowerment, community development and capacity-building programmes.

The organisation seeks to work collaboratively with communities, volunteers, professionals, government institutions, corporate partners, donors and other civil-society organisations to create meaningful and sustainable social impact.

7. RESPONSIBILITY TO THE PUBLIC

Safe India Orphanage recognises that a non-governmental organisation has a responsibility to the public and, most importantly, to the communities and beneficiaries it serves.

The organisation is committed to the principles of service, dignity, equality, transparency, accountability and social responsibility. Its programmes are developed with the objective of responding to identified community needs rather than operating solely for institutional interests.

The organisation gives importance to respectful treatment of beneficiaries and seeks to ensure that assistance reaches people who are genuinely in need. Special attention is given to vulnerable children, women, elderly persons, disadvantaged families and communities requiring social support.

8. ACCOUNTABILITY & TRANSPARENCY

Safe India Orphanage understands that public trust is an important responsibility. The organisation therefore seeks to maintain proper records relating to its activities, administration, beneficiaries, project implementation and financial transactions.

For CSR and donor-supported programmes, the organisation intends to maintain appropriate documentation relating to project objectives, budgets, expenditure, activities, beneficiaries, outcomes and reporting. Where required, supporting records and utilisation information can be maintained for review by authorised stakeholders.

The organisation also values collaboration with CSR partners, government authorities, professional institutions, community representatives and other development organisations. Such partnerships can strengthen programme quality, monitoring and measurable social outcomes.

9. COMMITMENT TO BENEFICIARIES

Safe India Orphanage is committed to serving beneficiaries with respect and without discrimination. The organisation seeks to promote equal access to its welfare and development initiatives based on identified needs and programme objectives.

Its approach is centred on the principle:

Empowering Lives, Building Future.

Through continued community engagement, responsible leadership and transparent programme implementation, Safe India Orphanage seeks to contribute to the welfare and development of vulnerable people and communities.

10. CONCLUSION

Safe India Orphanage is a community-oriented organisation established with a commitment to social welfare and humanitarian service. With an experienced leadership team, established legal and statutory registrations, and experience in community programmes, the organisation seeks to develop partnerships that can create meaningful and sustainable social impact.

The organisation welcomes responsible collaboration with CSR institutions, donors, government bodies, NGOs and community stakeholders for projects that promote child welfare, women's empowerment, education, health, livelihood development, community development and protection of vulnerable people.

SAFE INDIA ORPHANAGE

Empowering Lives, Building Future.
